

RODNEY W. PHILLIPE

Admitted: Illinois Bar 1991

Education: The John Marshall Law School
Eastern Illinois University

Member: Illinois State Bar Association

Rodney Phillipe joined Keefe, Campbell & Associates as a new associate in 2012. Rodney concentrates his practice in Employment Law Defense and General Liability Defense. Rodney has successfully defended numerous employment claims at both the U.S. Equal Opportunity Commission and the Illinois Department of Human Rights. A portion of his practice is devoted to counseling management and HR professionals, prior to litigation, on issues related to employees and the workplace. He began his career practicing insurance defense in Madison County, Illinois. Prior to joining the firm he worked as in-house corporation counsel overseeing all aspects of Insurance Defense Litigation, Employment Practices Litigation and Worker's Compensation. His trial and appellate experience includes both State and Federal Courts. Rodney brings over 19 years of experience defending employers and companies.