

Shawn R Biery:

Admitted to the Illinois Bar, 2001.

Education: Thomas Jefferson School of Law (J.D. 2001); Montana State University (B.S. 1997);

Additional Experience: Honorable Discharge, United States Marine Corps 1989-1993 Conducted Desert Warfare training exercises for over 40,000 troops annually. Strong trial and appellate experience at all levels of the Workers' Compensation Commission, Circuit and Appellate Courts throughout Illinois in both workers' compensation and general liability matters as well as detailed knowledge and credentials for settlement related Medicare issues. Certification from Lane & Calkins Mediation & Arbitration Training Course. Certification from Medicare Set-Aside UF Pre-certification program.

Member: American Bar Association Advisory Board, Illinois State Bar Association; Workers' Compensation Lawyers Association.

Presenter and Lecturer/Moderator/Participant: Professional Education Systems Institute (P.E.S.I.), Workers' Compensation Law in Illinois, August 2005; Council on Education in Management, Workers' Compensation Update, October 2005; PAHR, Workers' Compensation Update, March 2006; Construction Safety Council, Seminar, April 2006; Lorman, Basic Workers' Compensation, May 2006; Professional Education Systems Institute (P.E.S.I.), Workers' Compensation Law in Illinois, August 2006. Professional Education Systems Institute (P.E.S.I.), Workers' Compensation Law in Illinois, August 2006; Council on Education in Management, Workers' Compensation Update, October 2006; Construction Safety Council, Seminar, 2007-present; Lorman, Basic Workers' Compensation, May 2007-present. 2003-Current contributor to various Workers' Compensation legal update providers. 2005-Current member of ABA Advisory Board. Workers' Compensation 101 & 102, 2010.