Experience:

Mr. Smith began his legal career practicing as a bankruptcy attorney for both individuals and businesses throughout Chicago and the surrounding suburbs. Subsequently, Mr. Smith managed staff and attorneys in default and contested commercial litigation cases. Mr. Smith was also entrusted with handling complex commercial matters at all stages of litigation. More recently, Mr. Smith regularly participated in all levels of employment, commercial, and personal injury litigation in various Illinois counties and the Northern District of Illinois. Mr. Smith also contributed to all facets of multi-plaintiff and multi-defendant state and federal lawsuits. Mr. Smith routinely handled charges of discrimination in both the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Illinois Department of Human Rights. Mr. Smith's practice at Keefe, Campbell, Biery & Associates, LLC involves a similar range of practice areas, with a particular focus on general liability, insurance coverage, first-party insurance, malpractice, construction, third-party defense, tort accidents, employment law, product liability, and contract disputes. While Mr. Smith understands the importance of closing files for his clients, he also has substantial trial and appellate experience allowing him to fully assess and handle a case through the trial and appellate process. Mr. Smith has been recently selected as a Rising Star Superlawyer by SuperLawyers.com.

Professional Lectures & Presentations:

Mr. Smith presented to fellow legal professionals at an IICLE continuing legal education event entitled, Untying the Knot: Bankruptcy, Short Sales, and Foreclosures in Family Law Cases (Aug. 2011).
